This email is in follow-up to our August 21, 2020 email from Joseph Ziobro regarding EPA's evaluation of facilities in Alaska that hold Clean Water Act (CWA) Section 301(h) waivers, which exempt certain facilities from the national secondary treatment standards for wastewater treatment plants. EPA is making progress in evaluating reapplications and drafting preliminary decision documents to reissue National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permits for wastewater treatment plants in the following six communities: Haines, Ketchikan, Petersburg, Sitka, Skagway, and Wrangell.

If you are interested in attending, please select one of the two informational sessions. If neither date works, please feel free to contact Jenny Wu at Wu.Jennifer@epa.gov or at 206-553-6328. Should you have any immediate questions, comments, or concerns please do not hesitate to reach out to the 301(h) Team. Please feel free to forward this to anyone who would be interested in attending.

Respectfully,
Abby Conner, James Earl, Jamey Stoddard (301(h) Team Lead) and Jenny Wu
